

Lift Off Corns!

"Freezone" is Magic! Lift any Corn or Callus right off with fingers—No pain!

Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. It doesn't hurt one bit. Yes, magic! Why wait? Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of Freezone for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without soreness or irritation. Try it! No humbug!

GARDNER LAKE

Big Bass Caught—Twenty-Two at Family Reunion—New Bungalow For Dr. Henry M. Pollock—Aspinwall Drowning First in 50 Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hillhouse of Williamstown are spending two weeks as guests of Mrs. Asa Backus. Huckleberries are said to be scarce in this vicinity.

Harris and Theron Morran of Middleborough, Mass., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morgan, on Sunday.

W. H. McGuinness of Norwich spent the week end with his family at Pleasant View cottage.

John Neuschaefer and son of Central Falls, R. I., Mrs. Flora Berry of Seekonk, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Johnson and son, of Providence, R. I., spent two weeks at Eden Lodge.

Caught Big Bass.

D. Marra and Leon Abel of Bozrah caught a fine string of nice bass on Monday, weighing from one and one-half pounds to two and three quarters.

F. E. Burdick of New London was here Monday.

W. W. Buxnam and family of Norwich are at the Otis cottage for a few weeks.

Family Reunion.

There was a family reunion at Calby farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gottschalk Sunday. A shore dinner was served to twenty-two, Mr. and Mrs. George Zimmerman of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. John Appleby and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, all of Poquoson were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempton of Yantic and grandson, Edward Wolf, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Olive Gardner of Yantic, Willis Gardner of Lebanon and Ella Johnson of Hartford spent Sunday with Mrs. Ella Chapman.

Mrs. Brown of Norwich has been a guest of her son, Arthur C. Brown at Lakeside.

Mrs. Eva McDonald and children, have returned to assist.

Roy Braman of Hartford spent the week end with his family, at Camp Kojockey.

Miss Aithes Lewis is enjoying an outing at Camp Kojockey.

Building Bungalow.

Dr. H. M. Pollock is building a bungalow on his shore. A contractor from New London is doing the work.

Miss Martha Bennett and Maud Kitchen spent the week end at Rest a While, guests of Miss Blanche Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll and son, Jack, and Fribbie Mitchell, spent Monday at Ocean Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKenney of Brooklyn, has been staying at Hill Top.

John J. Moulton of Norwich is at Hill Top.

Austin King and William Stanley of Norwich are camping at Lakeside.

Hiked From Norwich.
Mary Crowe, Maude Crowe, Helen Higgins, Mary Higgins, Mildred Burgess, Constance Lang, Geraldine Lang and Mildred Crowe, all of Norwich, hiked to the Lake Saturday.

First Fatality in 50 Years.
Dennis Aspinwall's drowning last week Tuesday, was the first fatality of its kind in nearly fifty years.

Searching parties were at work day and night until the body was recovered Thursday morning between the island and Eden Park, where the boy went with a small boy in a row boat to bathe. He had been diving from the boat and was thought to have struck on the reef where he was found. He came with the Goshen society who were having their annual picnic at Eden Park.

The ambulance was here Thursday and took a patient to the W. W. Backus hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner and son, Mrs. Jennie Stanton and Dr. Dunham of Norwich were here Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Barrymore with his two children who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Norman Boynton, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

EAST THOMPSON

Birthday Party—Clemence-Sandstrom
Wedding—Funeral of Mrs. Edgar King.

Misses Elsie and Esther Sandstrom visited friends in Norwich, Mass., over the week end, returning Tuesday.

Birthday Party.
Miss Geraldine Coville entertained several girl friends Thursday afternoon, it being her sixth birthday.

Pickers report berries very plentiful.

Mrs. J. K. Miller is caring for the four weeks' old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. George Morse of East Thompson while Mrs. Morse is at the Day Kimball hospital, where she underwent a serious operation.

Clemence-Sandstrom.
Charles Clemence of Putnam and Miss Ellen Sandstrom were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage Saturday evening, July 27, by Rev. J. R. Miller. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Esther and Elsie Sandstrom.

Wife's Death Follows That of Husband.
Rev. J. R. Miller attended the funeral services for Mrs. Edgar King of Eastford at the Grove street chapel Saturday at 1:30 o'clock. About six weeks ago Mr. King was buried. Mrs. King suffered a shock the day that Mr. King was buried.

Moodus.—Word has been received of the death of Rev. Francis Parker, who died Saturday at his home in Kenilworth, N. H., of heart failure. Mr. Parker was a former pastor of the First Congregational church in this place.

MATTERS OF INTEREST IN WESTERVLY

Examining Board Will Classify Draftees—Local Grangers at State Field Day—Lieutenant George Stillman in England—Other News of Local Interest.

The examining board of State Division No. 1 met at the Westerly town hall on Broad street this (Friday) morning, at 9:30 o'clock to examine 16 draftees for the national army. The list of those called to be examined follows: Beland C. Shand, Bradford; Joseph Servino, Westerly; Amos E. A. Rathbun, Hope Valley; Harold L. Sierman, Sloumville; Rosario Vito, Westerly; Natale Turco, Westerly; Giuseppe Russo, Westerly; Elmer E. Brown, Hope Valley; Henry C. Champlin, Westerly; Frank C. Fish, Hope Valley; Albert S. Potter, Jr., Shannock; George Rabcock, Sloumville; Edward F. McGowan, Kansas; John E. Stenhouse, Westerly; William B. Ople, Westerly.

A number of Westerly grangers attended the annual field day of the Rhode Island State grange, which was held Wednesday at the state college at Kingston. President Howard Edwards, on behalf of the college, welcomed the visitors and told of college problems resulting from the continuance of the war.

The chief speaker of the day was Clark Ousley, assistant secretary of the United States department of agriculture, who reviewed existing conditions in the country, and urged conservation and the adoption of more economic methods of distribution. Other speakers were Edwin Simpson, superintendent of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon League, and Styles S. Pearce, master of the state grange.

The mails and newspapers for Westerly were delayed Thursday morning on account of a freight wreck which occurred Wednesday night two miles west of Saybrook Junction on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad during the terrific electric storm which swept through that section. Engineer Clarence Dames of New London was killed and ten freight cars were demolished when the two trains came together.

The lobster fishing license of Antonio de Sousa of Stonington has been revoked by the Rhode Island state commission of inland fisheries, since it was discovered that the man was residing in a different state, although he gave his address as Avondale, R. I. He has been ordered to remove his lobster fishing gear at once, and to return his license and badge to the office of the state commission at Providence.

Lieut. George Stillman of Westerly has arrived safely in England, according to word which has been received by his relatives. Lieut. Stillman was one of the original members of the old Fifth Company to go from Westerly before its name was changed to the 34th Co. Seventh Connecticut regiment, so it is supposed that they have arrived on the other side also.

Abraham Schuman of Westerly, who was recently on the editorial staff of a Waterbury paper, but enlisted in the Jewish Palestine Legion about a week ago is now manager of the Jewish recruiting campaign in Connecticut, with headquarters at Waterbury. Mr. Schuman's duties are to hold open air meetings, organize recruiting mass meetings and take general charge of the recruiting work. So far he has met with extraordinary success in getting Jewish young men to enroll in the Palestine Legion.

The state board of public roads of Rhode Island met at the town hall on Broad street yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock to issue driver's licenses and automobile registrations. Although more than 200 drivers' licenses have been issued since the board first came to Westerly last month, there were several at the town hall yesterday to take out licenses.

Rev. W. R. Uchtmann of Westerly is to conduct the afternoon service at the annual August meeting of the Narragansett tribe of Indians, which is to be held in the Old Meeting House in Charlestown next Sunday. Forenoon service will be held by Rev. Charles Northrop of Wakefield.

At the annual reunion of the Rhode Island Veterans Association, held on Wednesday at Crescent Park, Judge Nathan B. Lewis, of Westerly and Kingston, was selected president. The officers elected Sunday were: presidents, Aaron P. Wardfield, Charles A. Staples, William P. Hopkins; secretary, Annie G. Staples; treasurer, committee, Chester P. Rounds, Charles H. Perkins, Essek R. Darling, Charles A. Staples and Charles P. Nye; committee on necrology, Seabees R. Young, Lewis and William A. Page; resign, Chester P. Rounds; chaplain, Seabees R. Young.

Speeches were made by Daniel R. Ballou, William P. Hopkins, John N. Lewis and Seabees R. Young.

NORWICH TOWN

Picnic at Mohegan Park Provides Pleasurable Afternoon—Miss Hoffman Home From Washington—Thrift Stamps Being Sold at the Schoolhouses—Vacation Briefs.

The annual picnic of the First Congregational Sunday school was held at Mohegan Park Wednesday afternoon and evening. Sociable groups gathered in the pavilions. The interest of the children centered about the swains, the animals and the friendly peacocks. Postcards signed by many were sent to the boys overseas, to the camps, and to absent members out of town. At about 8:30 people gathered for a tempting supper of many varieties of sandwiches and cake, with a treat of ice cream. The committee in charge was G. F. Hyde, Mrs. John L. Browning and Miss Calla R. White.

Home From Crowded Washington.
Miss Julia H. Hoffman from Washington, D. C., is spending August with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Hoffman of West Town street. Miss Hoffman reports that Washington is full to overflowing with hundreds of new clerks coming in every week to help carry on the increased work in all departments, especially the big bureau of ordinance and the war risk insurance.

STONINGTON

Picnic for Sunday School Classes—Otho O'S. Flynn Writes from France.

Miss Fannie Pendleton entertained the Monday Whist club this week. The prize was won by Mrs. Gilbert H. Chesbro.

The Sunday school classes of Misses Rose Studley and Edwina Ryan went to Dean's Mills park Wednesday, where they were entertained by the teachers.

The borough schoolhouse is being put in order for the opening of school, which comes early in September.

Misses Fanny and Ann Oakes of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are spending the summer in Mystic, were guests at the home of Mrs. S. H. Chesbro during Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flynn are in receipt of a letter from their son, Otho O'S. Flynn. He is in France and his division is moving rapidly to the front line.

Carpenters are making repairs to the Pendleton house bought recently by the Atwood Machine company.

Joseph Sylvia left Tuesday with the Stonington contingent to go to Camp Devens.

Eckman's Calcerbs
FOR THROAT AND LUNGS
A Calcium compound that will bring relief in many acute and chronic cases. Provides in handy form, a basic remedy highly recommended by science. Contains no harmful drugs. Try it today.
50 cents a box, including war tax
Furnished by all druggists
Eckman Laboratories, Philadelphia

AMERICAN HOUSE
First-class Garage Service Connected
D. MORRISSEY, Prop.
Phone Shetucket Street

News From France.
Letters received Wednesday from Willis White of Peck's Corner tell of his life in France, of the benefit the boys receive from the Y. M. C. A., of deserted villages, of his busy days.

Miss Murphy's Resignation Regretted.
Much regret is felt at the resignation of Miss Helen Murphy who has taught for several years past in the primary room of the West Town Street school.

Letter From James Lynch.
The first letter written by James Lynch from overseas reached his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch, of East Town street Tuesday.

Local Jottings.
The first harvidas and cicadas were heard up town this week.

Charles Smith of Hartford is visiting relatives on Huntington avenue.

Rev. C. A. Northrop will preach at

NORWALK

HIGH PRESSURE CASINGS AND TUBES

There is in the Norwalk Tire the great heart of a thoroughbred to endure, the swift speed to win, and the sleek trim appearance that implies both. In-breeding of desirable qualities is just as possible in a tire as in a racer. The makers of Norwalks have eliminated every doubtful strain and have produced a thoroughbred.

FRISBIE-McCORMICK COMPANY, Norwich, Connecticut.

the First Congregational church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Junking and children have moved from New London to No. 1 Mediterranean lane.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tufts of Williamstown recently visited at Mr. Tufts' former home on Otobando avenue.

Mrs. Emma Knowlton of Montclair, N. J., is a guest at the home of Miss M. M. Bachelet on East Town street.

Misses Helen and Mabel Corriveau of Huntington avenue have been visiting friends in Canterbury this week.

Robert Winchester of Lafayette street was in the company from Fort Terry that paraded in New London Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank S. Avery and daughter Louise of West Town street visited Mrs. Avery's sister, Mrs. L. V. Whitford, in Jewett City this week.

Mrs. Frank Way and daughter, Miss Ethel Way of Otobando avenue have returned after a few days' visit in New London with Mrs. Archie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Lyman of Providence spent a day or two this week with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Owen S. Smith at their home on Huntington road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Gay of Forest Hill, Mass., one of Boston's suburbs, who are visiting in town, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wheeler on Scotland road.

Mrs. C. W. Grant and daughter, Miss Bessie M. Grant of Scotland road left Thursday evening for Groton Long Point for a few weeks' outing at Mr. and Mrs. John Sharple's cottage.

Mrs. John Harkness and Miss Emily Gellan of North Stonington and Mrs. John Merriam from Oakdale were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Day on Otobando avenue.

Mrs. Albert Miner of Huntington avenue represented the Foreign Missionary Auxiliary of the First Methodist church at Williamstown camp-ground Wednesday, when Mrs. Costello Lippitt entertained at her cottage.

CLARK'S FALLS

News Received of Stephen Frank Palmer's Safe Arrival Overseas.

Mrs. Oscar Perry and sister from New Haven have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maine entertained an automobile party from Providence Sunday.

Safe Overseas.
Horace Palmer has received news of the safe arrival overseas of his son, Stephen Frank Palmer. He was corporal in the depot brigade, Camp Devens, about six months and helped train new men, but was transferred to Co. H, 30th infantry, and sent overseas with the 76th division early in July.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. S. P. Sumner and two children from Rockville visited at E. M. Howard's over Sunday.

Walter Richard is visiting in New York.

Oscar Strong from Wapping visited his brother Emory Sunday.

Emory Strong was in Springfield Monday.

James Ross from Springfield is visiting his sister, Mrs. James Hughes.

W. E. Rice was a Hartford visitor Monday.

Mrs. Shaw has rented her cottage to some people who are gathering ferns.

Waterbury.—Five thousand pairs of socks and 700 sweaters are needed for shipment from the Waterbury Red Cross on Sept. 1.

NO SUGAR FOR TWO MONTHS IN STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS

Is Request of State Food Administrator Henry B. Endicott.

Boston, Aug. 8.—A request that the people of this state except children and invalids, forego the use of sugar entirely for the next two months was made by Henry B. Endicott, food administrator, today.

"It is a fact that the present ruling allows two pounds per month per person," he said "but it is also a fact that for the next few months it is very doubtful whether enough sugar can be obtained to distribute two pounds per person per month."

"Therefore, I urge every man and woman in Massachusetts first to do entirely without sugar for the next two or three months, and secondly, if for any reason anyone feels that he cannot go without it entirely, to see how little he can get along with."

ROYAL BULGARIANS HAVE ARRIVED AT NAUHEIM

Believed He Left Bulgaria Because of Internal Conditions.

London, Aug. 8.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, with the crown prince and the Princesses Eudoxia and Nadescha, arrived unexpectedly Wednesday at Naueim, Germany, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen. King Ferdinand apparently intends to remain a long time at Naueim where he is incognito as "Count Von Murany."

It is believed in well-informed circles in Copenhagen that King Ferdinand left Bulgaria because of internal conditions there. German newspapers merely said that the reason for his sudden visit is known in responsible circles.

Automobile bodies make experimentally of concrete reinforced with steel wire are said to be stronger and lighter than wooden ones.

Steadily Gaining in Weight All Summer

Something to be thankful for in the sizzling heat of "dog days". To know the little chap is adding the precious ounces to his weight week after week!

Borden's Eagle Brand is giving him just the nourishment he needs, now that Nature's food is no longer sufficient. And it's just as pure and wholesome as if prepared under your own eye. So don't worry about the wholesome purity of baby's milk, even in the hottest weather.

For over 60 years Eagle Brand has been nourishing tiny lads and lassies in the cradles of the nation. It is always dependable, always uniform, easily digested and economical. At better groceries; drug stores too.

Borden's EAGLE BRAND

BORDEN'S CONDENSED MILK COMPANY
Borden Building
New York

Keeps Ice-Box Sanitary

Wash your ice box carefully and often with 20 Mule Team Borax. Germs from the ice, from liquids and foods, lodge in the crevices and corners and thrive. Also sprinkle generously around your ice receptacle. The melting ice will wash the Borax through the drain pipe, keeping the hard-to-clean parts of your refrigerator sanitary, wholesome and sweet smelling. Endorsed by all health authorities. Used wherever hygienic cleanliness must be maintained.

20 MULE TEAM BORAX

Send for Magic Crystal Booklet. It gives 100 household uses for 20 Mule Team Borax. Free.
AT ALL DEALERS.

Pacific Coast Borax Co.
New York Chicago